The Giganet snap-in patch panels offers a flexible modular solution with outstanding performance and reliability. The keystone jacks are ordered separately and quickly snap into the blank panels. The modular capability allows custom configuration of panels to suite a variety of applications. The blank panel is supplied with an earthing kit which allows for proper grounding and bonding for shielded systems. A snap on rear wire manager unit is provided for cable management.

Angled Patch Panel

FEATURES
Conforms to - EIA/TIA 568-C.2 Cat 6A specification
Compatible with Giganet keystones and modules
Blank panel for snap-in modules with rear wire manager
Earthing kit for shielded keystone mounting and grounding
Port numbering identification and individual pre-printed port labelling area
Pre-assembled & detachable manager for enhanced cable management
Designed for standard and preterminated installations
Easy Insertion and removal of the CAT6A shielded Keystone
ROHS Compliant

PRODUCT INFORMATION
Part Number	Product Description
GN-C6A-FTP-PPA-24	Giganet Category 6A Angled 24 Port Blank Patch Panel with Rear Wire Manager

GIGANET
25 Year System
Warranty